Pilot to reing, lay H

Itanagar (Agencies) : Union Minister of State for Communication Sachin Pilot is arriving here tomorrow on a two-day visit to Arunachal Pradesh.

Official sources said the minister would have a meeting with BSNL authorities to discuss matters related to improper functioning of the landline and mobile telephones and remedies for a flawless service.

The minister will lay the foundation stone of the head post office (HPO) here and is likely to redress the dismal postal services as postal delivery in remote district and sub-divisional headquarters of this landlocked state take weeks.

With recent decision of the department of post to introduce GPS-fitted mail motor vehicles in the hilly and difficult terrains of Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Mizoram, Manipur,

Head Master held for molesting student

Kannur (Agencies) A head master of a government school here has been taken into custody for allegedly molesting a sixth standard girl student.

Police said V Baburaj (46), head master of Kariyad-Puthussery Government UP School, had been molesting the student for the last 18 months in the interval period at his office room.

The arrest was made yesterday following a petition filed by parents of the victim. The head master was remanded to judicial custody, police added.
